Mrs. C. Barker is visiting her parents at Vilna.

Miss Olive Jack of Lamont spent the weekend at her home here.

Owing to the very icy condition of the roads during the weekend, cars seemed to have a hard job to stay on the road, and several landed in the ditch.

Eletha and Laura Hodgins spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Cormack.

Quite a number of Kinsella people attended the dance at Jarow on Friday evening.

The Students' Union held a very successful Whist Drive on Wednesday evening last, when the winners of the prizes were Mrs. P. Mollier, Mrs. Gayfer, Mr. Wyllie Brown, and Mr. J. Wilkinson. Two B and B gangs have been busy in Kinsella during the past week. One was busy painting the interior of the section houses, and the other repairing the pumping station.

L. Rasmussen, president of the Gas Line Hockey League, called a meeting of the executive at Viking on Sunday, January 25th for the purpose of clearing up various matters concerning the league.

Representatives were present from Tofteld, Holden, Irma and Viking.

The main item of discussion was a petition demanding the withdrawal of a Viking player from the league, for "unnecessary dirtiness," or the withdrawal of the Viking team. After the discussion, it was agreed that much of the rough playing could be stopped by more rigid enforcement of the rules, by the referee. The petition was withdrawn by the signing teams represented at the meeting.

It was decided that in future both linesman and referee be at each game, and they be requested to penalize any players using abusive language or breaking any other of the playing rules.

Obituary

WAINWRIGHT DISTRICT PIONEER DIES IN EDMONTON

One of Wainwright's very early and outstanding pioneer farmers and ranchers passed away in Edmonton on Thursday, January 22, in the person of Mr. George Smith. He had moved to Edmonton in December to spend the winter months there.

Born near the Niagara Peninsula in Ont. in 1859 he was married in January 1881 and with his bride moved to Saginaw, Michigan, where he farmed until 1905 when he came west to Wainwright and took a homestead. His wife and family joined him the following year, 1906. Mrs. Smith predeceased him in August, 1942.

He was well known in the Wainwright and Greenshields districts, where he had extensive farming interests.

In 1946 he re-married and had been living in the Fabyan district until moving to Edmonton in the fall. The deceased had enjoyed good health and been quite active until his sudden passing as stated above.

Left to mourn besides his wife are one son Arthur of Wainwright and two daughters, Mrs. J. Midlemass of Wainwright and Mrs. R. Bradshaw of Royal Oak, Mich., U.S.A.

The funeral was held on Sunday at 2:30 p.m. from the Presbyterian church with Rev. Dr. Young officiating. McLeod's funeral parlors were in charge of arrangements. Those acting as pallbearers were Messrs. L. W. Smith, G. Conway, C. Coleman, M. Roth, G. Reid and J. A. MacKenzie.

Floral tributes and donations to the Cancer fund in memory of the deceased were received from: Your loving wife: Joe and Tillie; Josephine, Eric and family; Mary and Gilbert; Lillian, Art, Marg and Marilyn; The King Families; Esther and Jim; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. MacKenzie; Mr. and Mrs. S. Cooper; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Reid; Garnery and Mildred; Mr. and Mrs. W. White and family; The Morrison Family; Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kett and Sew and So Club of Fabyan.

Q. Is there any treatment for tuberculous bronchitis?

A. Ultraviolet ray applied locally through the bronchoscope, cauterization with silver nitrate and electrolysis have been used by various physicians with reported success. Ultraviolet ray, applied to the whole body, and a super-vitamin diet, also have been tried with reported success. Pneumothorax and other forms of collapse therapy have been recommended when the disease was confined to the bronchus and did not involve the trachea. Some physicians are loathe to use collapse therapy because of the possibility of bronchiectasis and nontuberculous infection taking place in the lung in back of a closed bronchus. Partial closure of the bronchus due to scar formation from ulceration may be treated by dilation of the bronchus. Sometimes simple aspiration of the secretions from the lung fatal to the ulcerated and partly stenosed bronchus has given good results. It must also be kept in mind that some competent bronchoscopists say that many bronchial ulcerations heal spontaneously and that treatment does but little if any good.

Easterly Echoes

Miss Elfreida Fenton has returned to her home here after spending several months in Regina.

We are glad to report that the plane at Crescent Hill School has been shipped to Edmonton for some much needed repairs.

Mrs. G. Fenton and Rita were weekend visitors in the city.

Our sympathy goes to Mrs. G. Smith and the King family in the loss of a husband and friend in the death of Mr. George Smith which occurred in Edmonton on January, 22nd.

A large attendance at the regular A.F.U. meeting under the chairmanship of Mr. N. Willertsdahl made an enjoyable and busy evening. Guest speaker was Mr. Madrox of Wainwright, whose subject was the week killer, 2-4-D. Another guest was Mr. Ben Oldham of Wainwright.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Johnson, nee Margaret Bacon, at the Wainwright hospital on Sunday, January 25th, a baby boy.

While driving along the highway near the top of the Battle River hill, Mr. and Mrs. Allen McFarland had the misfortune to have their car suddenly catch fire and burn.

IRMA CURLERS TAKE IN WAINWRIGHT BONSPIEL

Quite a number of Irma are taking in the bonspiel at Wainwright this week. And from all reports the local lads are upholding the honor of their own fair town very well.

Everyone seems too busy with the games to send up very detailed reports but as far as we could understand by Wednesday noon the Fenton rink, skipped by R. Kirkman, was still in the Grand Challenge. The Brown and Milne rinks were in the eighths in the merchants but were to play against each other that afternoon. The Milne rink was still in the Visitors' competition. The Smallwood and Archibald rinks were also still playing on Wednesday. A spectator of the Monday games tells us that at one period there were 4 Irma rinks playing on each of the 4 sheets of Wainwright ice and it so happened that all four rinks had tied the score with their opponents at the same time.

IRMA LADIES TO HOLD LOCAL BONSPIEL

The Irma Ladies Curling Club are holding a little bonspiel on Saturday, January 31st, as a means of interesting non-curling ladies in the gentle art of rock sliding.

It is not expected that the brand of curling will be of quite the same order as displayed in such spels as Napawin for instance, but the fun is guaranteed.

The C.G.I.T. will serve lunch.

LADIES AID CHANGES DATE OF MEETING

Owing to the fact that Friday, February 13th is the World Day of Prayer, it has been necessary for the Ladies Aid to change the date of their meeting. This meeting will be held Monday afternoon at 3:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Hager. Devotionals: Mrs. Frickleton. Topic: Mrs. McKay. Hostesses, Mrs. M. Knudson and Mrs. Rohrer. Everyone come and bring a friend. Kindly note the date and change of time!

IRMA W.M.S. HOLDS MEETING

The Irma W.M.S. held its first meeting for 1948 on the evening of Wednesday, January 14th at the home of Mrs. I. S. Reeds.

The new president, Mrs. A. R. McRoberts was in charge of the meeting. Mrs. K. Coffin is the new secretary. A vote of thanks was given to the retiring officers, Mrs. I. S. Reeds and Mrs. A. Enger for the seven years of faithful service which they have given to the Irma branch of the W.M.S.

As Mrs. Enger read the annual report it was clear to all that 1947 had been a year of progress. We have been promised some interesting details from this report for a future issue.

Northern Nuggets

A nice crowd gathered at Albert school Friday last for an evening of 500. Prizes went to Mrs. H. Larson and Mr. A. Fleming. This was the first of what we hope will be several such evenings sponsored by the W.I. The next card party will be on Friday, February 6, with hope of a dance afterward. Everybody welcome!

The district wishes a speedy recovery to Mrs. John Barsz who is to undergo an appendix operation this week in Mannville hospital.

Mrs. George Hardy is a visitor at the Ivan Hardy home these days.

The next meeting of the Buffalo Coulee W.I. will be at the home of Mrs. Haakon Larson.

There were many happy faces in our district Thursday last when the snowplow came along and "dug us out."

Mrs. Francis Luken entertained the local bridge players at a party Monday evening.

Miss Irene Larson is home from school with the measles.

NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING OF ELECTORS

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given that a Meeting of the Electors of the Village of Irma will be held in the Hedley's Hall on Monday, the 9th day of February, 1948, at Eight o'clock p.m., for the purpose of receiving the Report of the Mayor, Secretary-Treasurer, Auditor and Chairman of the various Committees of Council for the year ending thirty-first day of December, 1947.

Dated at Irma this day of January 21st, 1948.

A. C. Charter,
Secretary-Treasurer.

PEE-WEE HOCKEY

On Saturday, January 24th, the Irma Rough-Riders travelled to Wainwright to take on the home team.

Smith of Wainwright opened the scoring in the early minutes of the game but Ronnie Lovig was quick in getting it back for Irma. Wainwright again went ahead on Harley's goal and went up two on Smith's second goal of the day.

That was all for Wainwright as Frickleton scored the only goal of the second period and then Mervin Lovig, Frickleton with two and Hockett with two, finished out the scoring to make it 7-3 for Irma.

Lineups: Irma: Kennedy; Pierce, Jones, Hockett, O. Lovig, M. Lovig, R. Lovig, A. Enger, W. Enger, Frickleton, Masson, Dawson. Wainwright: Madkins, MacKenzie, MacKenzie, McGrogan, Mitchell, Marsden, La France, Terry, Coffield, Smith, Rasmussen, Sheffield, Harley, Hardin, Stiles.

WILL URGE SUSPENSION OF LEVY ON MOTORISTS

Collection by the Alberta government of the $1.00 fee imposed last year on all licensed motorists for the purpose of building up an accident indemnity fund should be suspended, in the opinion of officials of the Alberta Motor Association.

This fund is understood to amount to around $100,000 while payments this year for the purpose of compensating persons injured in motor accidents have been negligible.

In Manitoba, the provincial authorities have decided that payment of a $1.00 fee into the fund should be temporarily suspended, owing to the large amount in the reserve and the small number of claims.

<A.M.A. officials feel that action by the provincial authorities in Alberta would be fully justified, in view of the similar situation here.

It is expected that representations will be made to the provincial government prior to the opening of the regular session of the legislature on February 12.

Some time ago it was indicated that new amending legislation dealing with the accident indemnity bill passed at the 1947 session will be introduced.

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY—

THE STRATEGIST

By DONALD J. MacLEOD

GLOOM hung like a fog over the small room. Both Joe Winsor and his sister Anne fixed their eyes on the pale green door of their mother's room. Silently the door opened and a shadow detached itself from the doorway. Dr. Miller stood before them and shook his head.

"I'm sorry, Joe, sorry Anne. She's gone."

Anne put her face in her hands and her red hair spilled over her shoulders. Joe suddenly eyed his sister as he pulverized his cigarette. Dr. Miller put his arm around Anne. "She didn't suffer, Anne, she went quickly. Have a good cry, you'll feel better."

Sure, let her cry, Doc? Joe said brusquely. "She fought with Ma for years. He lit a fresh cigarette and strode from the room."

When Anne got home, Bill Carson was sprawled on the sofa like a collapsed parachute. He had his fedora pulled over his face and an unpleasant odor floated above him. Anne slumped in the easy chair. Bill shifted his hat back on his head and squinted.

"Where yuh been, over at your old lady's again?"

Anne winced. "Please, Bill, You needn't worry about Mother bothering you again. She's dead."

Anne's voice was black coffee to his befogged brain. His bloodshot eyes rounded around the room and rested on his wife's face.

"Dead, huh? Well, who yuh going fight with now?"

"You're the only reason Mother and I quarrelled. Mother warned me but I thought if you loved me enough you'd stop drinking."

Bill fumbled to find his tie and brush the hair out of his eyes.

"That's?" Bill said. "What a pretty speech. Let me tell yuh one thing, just one thing, I'm as good as this Jimmy Sharpe. If I'm not why'n yuh marry him? Just tell little Bill the answer to that one, just tell me."

Anne passed her hand across her forehead. "Bill, please, I don't feel like going over all that again. I'm going to lie down for awhile."

"Yah, go ahead. Lie down as long as yuh want. Yuh didn't answer little Bill, did yuh? I'm goin' get some air..." Bill weaved to the door, fumbled for the knob and carefully pulled it behind him.

Anne sighed, kicked off her pumps and slipped the flowered jersey dress over her head. She slid beneath the cool sheets and closed her eyes. The years began to march before her in review. It was away back, she couldn't have been more than ten when Dad died and Mother started planning her life and Joe's. That was the trouble, Mother planned every detail, where they went, whom they associated with. Joe had always been mother's little white-haired boy — he never questioned her plans.

A few more years hustled past and Mother began to suggest Jimmy would make a good husband. Anne liked Jimmy, it wasn't just because they'd gone to school together, it was something deeper. She had believed, not because he was only a grocery clerk, but perhaps because mother had picked him. It seemed like yesterday she had been in the kitchen helping Mother with the dishes.

"Jimmy was wondering if you'd go roller-skating Saturday night, Anne."

"First I've heard of it, Mother. Anyway, I'm going out with Bill Carson."

"Jimmy phoned when you were out, dear. That Carson boy isn't good for you, he drinks."

"Not too much. I can arrange my own dates, Mother."

"I know, Anne, but Jimmy's such a nice boy."

"Anne threw the tea towel on the rack."

"You've said it a million times. Mother. I'm sick of hearing it. Bill loves me and I'm going to marry him."

Anne still remembered the hurt that came into her mother's eyes. After the wedding, just before they left on their honeymoon, Anne noticed a strange look in her eyes. Anne laughed uneasily.

"Don't worry, Mother, we'll be happy."

Their marriage had been a series of sessions making black coffee and hailing Bill out of jail. Bill was the penitent each time, like a little boy who'd been caught stealing apples.

"It won't happen again, Anne."

"You always say the same thing, Bill."

"Anne..."

"I love you, I love you, I love you..."

The words rolled on and on, growing fainter and fainter until they became a whisper. Anne sighed as sleep came.

SNIPPED, FOUND ROBBERS' LOOT—When two men were reported of acting suspiciously about 20 miles from the scene of robbery at Stranraer, Sask., two R.C.M.P. dogs, Tell and Ignatz, were taken to the area to pick up the scent. Within a few hours Tell had located both men—F. Baker and P. Johnson, well-known criminals, according to the R.C.M.P.—hiding in patches of brush and long grass.

The second dog, Ignatz, shown here, sniffed out an old sock near where Baker had been hiding. The sock contained the $500 stolen cash, a bottle of explosive and a detonator.

U.S. May Lease Land For B.C. Highway

Canada May Have 99-Year Lease On 15 Miles In Washington State

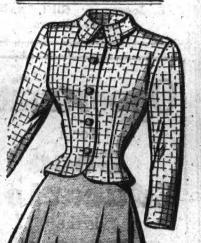

VICTORIA, B.C. — Canada may have a 99-year lease on 15 miles of United States land—in the State of Washington—when plans are completed for construction of Victory highway as part of the southern trans-provincial road system.

Works Minister E. C. Carson has been granted permission to put surveyors in the field in Washington state next spring to map the route. The highway would cut south from Grand Forks, B.C., swing through American territory close to the international border, and cut back into British Columbia, near Rosland.

It would eliminate 55 miles of tortuous, mountain-side ride, climbs over two summits, and would save $2,000,000 in construction costs.

Final decision on leasing terms will have to come through negotiations on the highest diplomatic level at Ottawa and Washington, D.C., but it has been suggested a 99-year lease would be preferable to having the territory ceded outright.

Mennonites To Quit Canada

Twenty-Three Families To Leave Central Saskatchewan For Paraguay

GOULDSTOWN, Sask. — Twenty-three Mennonite families will leave this west central Saskatchewan district for a new life in a new continent as soon as they can arrange transportation.

Numbering approximately 90, they will join more than 2,000 from Mennonite communities at Halfstadt and Altona, Man., in a migration that will carry them more than 6,000 miles to central Paraguay in South America.

Most of them belong to the Sommerfeldt sect, one of the four sects of the Mennonite Church, whose history has been marked by frequent migrations in search of religious freedom. Some of the migrants came from Russia in the original Mennonite influx into Canada between 1870 and 1872, but most of them are children of the original settlers and were born in Mennonite communities scattered between Moose Jaw and Swift Current, Sask.

No definite reason for the migration has been given, but such moves are not considered uncommon. Shortly before the war a group left the Swift Current area for Mexico. Most of the Gouldtown group already have disposed of their property and are ready to leave when transportation and passports are arranged.

The sect originated in Holland in the 17th century and migrated first to Prussia, then to Russia, to escape the bitter persecution that followed it. When they became liable in Russia to military service, which they have always refused on religious grounds, they came to North America.

In South America they plan to establish the same type of communal-farming village they built in the West during the early days of settlement.

First printer in the western hemisphere was Giovanni Paoli of Mexico City, in 1539.

We understand some of the local business men are so inspired by our lovely weather, they are thinking of getting out the fishing tackle.
The ground can't be too badly frozen for digging bait.
